Love at First Sight

Fine art has always reminded you a bit of attractive members of the opposite sex: unreachable, unapproachable, and out of your league.

Before you get utterly discouraged, let Allison Cohen be your matchmaker. The owner of Sightline will fix you up with the art you need — with an approachable demeanor that makes you feel right at home.

Whether you plan to start a collection, want to get a photo for a friend, or just want to know what to do with old posters and prints, she'll set you up. She can help determine what fits your style, eye, and budget, where all the good stuff is hiding, and what to do with what you have.

And Cohen can even hook you up with invitations to studio tours, galleries openings, and art parties.

So even if you don't find a painting to lust after, you might at least find a cute date.
